

Pupil Survey – Summer 2025 Summary

Classes: Years 3–6

Responses: Whole School Survey

Focus: Wellbeing, Inclusion, Safety, Learning, and School Life

Overall Highlights

- Strong sense of belonging: Across all year groups, the majority of pupils feel they are an important part of Almond Hill School.
- Culture and kindness matter: Most pupils feel proud to share their culture and notice the positive impact of weekly kindness challenges.
- E-safety and real-life learning: Pupils report remembering how to stay safe and making safer choices online — showing our safety education is having real impact.
- Outdoor spaces are valued: Pupils enjoy using the school’s outdoor areas and say time outside helps them feel calm and focused.

Learning & Challenge

- Most pupils agree that teachers help them to do their best and provide work that challenges them.
- Learning is enjoyed across all year groups, with strong agreement from Year 6 especially.

Wellbeing & Safety

- The vast majority of children feel safe at school either “most of the time” or “all the time”.
- Pupils feel they have an adult they can talk to when something is worrying them — a vital sign of trust and support.
- Emotional and mental health support is widely recognised

Independence & Respect

- Pupils report feeling encouraged to be independent and take responsibility — especially in Year 6.
- Respect and equality are key values at Almond Hill, and most pupils “strongly agree” that everyone is treated fairly.

Bullying & Feeling Unsafe

- Most students say bullying “doesn’t happen” or is dealt with well by staff.

Activities & Extracurricular

- A strong number of pupils take part in clubs, arts, and sports — frequently or very frequently.
- This highlights the importance of maintaining a rich programme beyond the classroom.

1. Do you feel you are an important part of our school?

2. Do you feel proud to share your culture at Almond Hill?
