

December 2020

In our art lessons, we have been learning to paint water colour landscapes. They look brilliant.

Some children in year 6 came 2nd in a virtual football skills competition, competing against other schools across Hertfordshire.

These are Buddhist Dharma wheels. We have made them in our lessons about the Noble Eightfold Path

In English, we have been writing about Charles Dickens and have been reading Great Expectations.

