Attendance Policy

Introduction and Background

Almond Hill recognises that positive behaviour and good attendance are essential in order for pupils to get the most of their school experience, including their attainment, wellbeing and wider life chances.

The law entitles every child of compulsory school age to an efficient, full-time education suitable to their age, aptitude, and any special educational need they may have. It is the legal responsibility of every parent to make sure their child receives that education either by attendance at a school or by education otherwise than at a school.

Where parents decide to have their child registered at school, they have an additional legal duty to ensure their child attends that school regularly, on time. This means their child must attend every day that the school is open, except in a small number of allowable circumstances such as being too ill to attend or being given permission for an absence in advance from the school.

The Department for Education (DfE) has produced statutory guidance for maintained schools, academies, independent schools, and local authorities. It is called "Working together to improve school attendance" and it includes a National Framework in relation to absence and the use of legal sanctions. Our School Attendance Policy reflects the requirements and principles of that guidance.

This policy is written with the above guidance in mind and underpins our school ethos to:

- promote children's welfare and safeguarding.
- ensure every pupil has access to the full-time education to which they are entitled.
- ensure that pupils succeed whilst at school.
- ensure that pupils have access to the widest possible range of opportunities at school, and when they leave school.

It has been developed in consultation with school governors and the Local Authority. It seeks to ensure that all parties involved in the practicalities of school attendance are aware and informed of attendance matters in school and to outline the school's commitment to attendance being everyone's responsibility. It details the responsibilities of individuals and groups involved and the procedures in place to promote and monitor pupil attendance.

In addition, all schools follow the DfE's statutory safeguarding guidance, Keeping Children Safe in Education, which emphasises the importance of understanding the potential vulnerabilities of children who are missing or absent from education.

Our policy aims to raise and maintain levels of attendance by:

- Promoting a positive and welcoming atmosphere in which pupils feel safe, secure, and valued.
- Raising and maintaining a whole school awareness of the importance of good attendance and punctuality.
- Ensuring that attendance is monitored effectively and reasons for absences are recorded promptly and consistently.

For our children to gain the greatest benefit from their education it is vital that they attend regularly and be at school, on time, every day the school is open unless the reason for the absence is unavoidable.

It is a rule of this school that pupils must attend every day, unless there are exceptional circumstances, and it is the headteacher, not the parent, who can authorise the absence.

1. Promoting Regular Attendance

At Almond Hill Junior School, we believe in developing good patterns of attendance and set high expectations for the attendance and punctuality for all our pupils from the outset. It is a central part of our school's vision, values, ethos and day to day life. We recognise the strong connections between attendance, attainment, safeguarding and wellbeing.

Helping to create a pattern of regular attendance is the responsibility of parents, pupils and all members of school staff.

To help us all to focus on this, we will:

- Submit a daily attendance return to the Department of Education, in line with the legal expectations placed on all schools.
- Build strong relationships and work jointly with families.
- Give parents/carers details on attendance in our newsletters.
- Promote the benefits of high attendance.
- Accurately complete admission and, with the exception of schools where all pupils are boarders, attendance registers and have effective day to day processes in place to follow-up absence as required by law.
- Celebrate excellent attendance by displaying and reporting individual and class achievements.
- Reward good or improving attendance.
- Publishing attendance percentages in the school newsletter.
- Publishing information to parents in newsletters about the impact of absence on learning
- Discussing the importance of attendance and punctuality with pupils in PSHE lessons/assemblies and how these are important in later life.
- Sharing attendance and punctuality figures with parents at Parent Teacher Interviews and reporting these figures in annual reports.

- Seeking to support families to improve attendance and implementing specific strategies through structure family meetings.
- Report to parents/carers regularly on their child's attendance and the impact on their progress.
- Contact parents/carers should their child's attendance fall below the school's target for attendance.
- Contact parents/carers to inform them about missed learning
- Promote and incentivise school attendance through discussions, recognition in assemblies and newsletters, trophies, teddy and additional playtime as a reward.

2. Understanding Types of Absence

Any absence affects the routine of a child's schooling and regular absence will seriously affect their learning journey and ability to progress. Any pupil's absence or late arrival disrupts teaching routines and so may affect the learning of others in the same class. Ensuring a child's regular attendance at school is a parental responsibility and allowing absence from school, without a good reason, creates an offence in law and may result in prosecution.

Every half-day absence from school has to be classified by the school (not by the parent), as either authorised or unauthorised. This is why information about the cause of any absence is always required. Each half-day is known as a 'session'.

Authorised absences are morning or afternoon sessions away from school for a genuine reason such as illness (although you may be asked to provide medical evidence for your child before this can be authorised), medical or dental appointments which unavoidably fall in school time, emergencies or other unavoidable cause.

Unauthorised absences are those which the school does not consider reasonable and for which no 'leave' has been granted. This type of absence can lead to the school referring to the Local Authority for penalty notices and/or legal proceedings.

Unauthorised absence includes, (however this list is not exhaustive):

- parents/carers keeping children off school unnecessarily e.g. because they had a late night or for non-infectious illness or injury that would not affect their ability to learn.
- absences which have never been properly explained.
- children who arrive at school after the close of registration are marked using a 'U'. This indicates that they are in school for safeguarding purposes, however, is counted as an absence for the session.
- shopping trips.
- looking after other children or children accompanying siblings or parents to medical appointments.
- their own or family birthdays.

- holidays taken during term time, not deemed 'for exceptional purposes' by the headteacher, including any arranged by other family members or friends.
- other leave of absence in term time which has not been agreed.

3. Persistent Absenteeism (PA) and Severe Absenteeism (SA)

A pupil is defined by the Government as a 'persistent absentee' when they miss 10% or more schooling across the school year for any reason; this can be authorised or unauthorised absence.

Absence at this level will cause considerable damage to any pupil's education and we need the full support and co-operation of parents to resolve this. All pupils who have attendance levels of 90% or below are considered to be a persistent absentee.

A pupil who has missed 50% or more schooling is defined by the Government as 'severely absent'.

Pupils within this cohort may find it more difficult to be in school or face bigger barriers to their regular attendance and, as such, are likely to need more intensive support.

4. Absence Procedures

We monitor and review all pupils' absence, and the reasons that are given, thoroughly.

If a child is absent from school the parent must follow these procedures:

- Contact the school on the first day of absence before 8.55am, when our register closes;
- The school has an answer phone available to leave a message if nobody is available to take your call, or you may call into school personally and speak to the office staff. Please be aware that, if you leave a voicemail to report your child's absence, you may receive a call from the school so that we may discuss the absence before making a decision as to whether the absence is to be recorded as authorized.
- Contact the school on every further day of absence, again before 8.55 am;
- Ensure that your child returns to school as soon as possible and you provide any medical evidence, if requested, to support the absence. Medical evidence may be requested (e.g a screenshot of a text/email, photograph of letter or prescribed medication) where your child is having multiple periods of absence which are reported as being due to medical reasons. When determining whether a child is too ill to attend school, both parents and school staff can consider the advice contained within the NHS Guidance on School Absence and Childhood Illness see Annex C.

If your child is absent, we will:

- Telephone or text you on the first, and every subsequent day of absence, if we have not heard from you. However, it is your responsibility to contact us.

- If we are unable to make contact with parents by telephone, we will telephone emergency contact numbers, send letters home and a home visit may be made, in the interests of safeguarding.
- The Local Authority will be informed if no contact has been made with parent/carers by the 10th day of absence (or sooner if deemed appropriate) as The School Attendance (Pupil Registration) (England) Regulations 2024 Section 13 requires schools to inform the local authority of any pupils absent from school and where absences amount to more than 10 or more days, either consecutively or irregularly and have been unauthorised. This means school will have unauthorised 20 am/pm sessions of absences. Schools are also under a safeguarding duty, under section 175 of the Education Act 2002 to investigate any unexplained/unauthorised absences.

The headteacher is the attendance champion at Almond Hill. The office staff record attendance daily and discuss instances of attendance and lateness with senior staff. The headteacher holds half termly reviews of attendance with class teachers and the Pastoral Lead. Where issues persist, the following will be actioned:

Stage 1: Where there are concerns about attendance (below 96%) and punctuality, the school will send a written letter to parents, guardians or carers to offer support.

Stage 2: If the concerns persist the school will write to the parents, guardians or carers explaining that no further absences will be authorised unless evidence is provided, and reiterate the offer of support. If a child's absence is improving but still below the expected standard, this will be acknowledged in the second letter.

Stage 3: If the concerns persist the school will write to the parents, guardians or carers inviting them to a meeting and explaining that a fixed penalty notice may be applied.

Stage 4: If the concerns persist further the school will arrange a meeting between the parents, guardians or carers, a school representative and the school's Local Authority Attendance Officer (LAAO).

Stage 5: If the concerns persist the school will make a formal referral to the Local Authority Educational Welfare Service to deal with the on-going issues. Should concerns persist the LAAO will agree action and where necessary meet with the parents, guardians or carers. Please note that ultimately the Local Authority can take legal action.

5. Following up Absence

Office staff will follow up where we have not received a reason for absence.

Step 1: A text is sent to the main contact(s) in the morning of the first day of absence, and Headteacher informed.

Step 2: If no contact is made to the school, then telephone calls are made to the other contact(s) by 12.15pm

Step 3: On the second day of absence, if there is still no contact with the family, steps 1 and 2 are repeated in the morning.

Step 4: If no contact is made, then the school will follow up as it deems appropriate. This may include contacting the following: Local Authority Attendance Officer (LAAO) / Police / Children's Services / Other appropriate external agencies

At this point your child will be considered to be "absent from education". If absence continues, we may:

- Write to you if your child's attendance is below 96%, causing concern and/or where punctuality is a concern.
- Offer a meeting so that you may discuss the situation with our Emma Fordham (headteacher) and/or Gemma Burgess (Pastoral Lead)
- Consider and offer reasonable adjustments.
- Offer a Families First Assessment to ensure appropriate support is considered.
- Create a personalised robust support plan, such as an attendance contract, to address any barriers to attendance and make clear each person's role in improving the attendance patterns of your child.
- Offer signposting support to other agencies or services, if appropriate.
- Seek advice, guidance and support from the Local Authority Statutory Attendance Support Team and consider appropriate legal sanctions, if attendance deteriorates following the above actions.

6. Lateness

Poor punctuality is not acceptable and can sometimes lead to irregular school attendance patterns. Good timekeeping is a vital life skill which will help children as they progress through their school life and out into the wider world.

Pupils who arrive late disrupt lessons and, if a child misses the start of the day, they can feel unsettled and embarrassed and risk missing vital work and important messages from their class teacher. The times of the start and close of the school day for all pupils at Almond Hill Junior School are:

Registration in class starts: 8.45am

Registration in class closes: 9.00am

End of the school day: 3.15pm

How we manage lateness:

- The school day starts at 8.45am when children can begin to come into school;
- Registers are taken at 8.55am;
- Children arriving after 8.55am are required to come into school via the school office.
- After 9.15am the registers will be closed. In accordance with the Regulations, if your child arrives after that time, they will receive a mark that shows them to be on site – ‘U’, but this will not count as a present mark and it will mean that they have an unauthorised absence;
- The school may contact parents/carers regarding punctuality concerns;
- A member of school staff is always available at the drop off zone in the mornings.
- If your child has a persistent lateness record, you may be asked to meet with the Pastoral Lead/Class teacher, but you can approach us at any time if you are having difficulties getting your child to school on time. We expect parents and staff to encourage good punctuality by being good role models to our children and, as a school, we celebrate good class and individual punctuality. Unauthorised lateness could result in the school seeking advice and guidance from the Local Authority.

7. Understanding barriers to attendance

Whilst any child may occasionally have time off school because they are too unwell to attend, sometimes they can be reluctant to attend school. Any barriers preventing regular attendance are best resolved between the school, the parents, and the child. If a parent thinks their child is reluctant to attend school, then we will work with that family to understand the root problem and provide any necessary support. We can consider a Families First Assessment, use outside agencies to help with this, such as the School Nurse, Mental Health and Emotional Wellbeing support services, a Family Support Worker, or the relevant Local Authority team/s. Where outside agencies are supporting the family, you may be invited to attend a Team Around the Family meeting (TAF) to consider what is working well and what needs to improve. An individual support plan will be agreed and subsequently reviewed.

Some pupils face greater barriers to attendance than their peers. These can include pupils who suffer from long-term medical conditions or who have special educational needs and disabilities, or other vulnerabilities. High expectations of attendance remain in place for these pupils; however, we will work with families and pupils to support improved attendance whilst being mindful of the additional barriers faced. We can discuss reasonable adjustments and additional support from external partners, where appropriate.

We will try to be sensitive to the needs of individual parents and this should be reflected in the way in which attendance issues are addressed. We recognise that some parents have difficulty understanding written communications. We also recognise the reluctance of some parents to come into school.

Under the DfE's statutory guidance, schools are required to submit a sickness return to the Local Authority for all pupils who have missed/are likely to miss 15 or more school days (consecutive or cumulative) due to medical reasons/illness.

See Annex A for DfE summary tables of responsibilities for school attendance.

8. Parent/Guardian/Carer Responsibilities

Parents are responsible in law for ensuring that their children of compulsory school age receive an efficient education suitable to their age, ability, aptitude and any special educational needs that they may have. Most parents fulfil this responsibility by registering their children at a school and are therefore responsible for ensuring that their children attend and stay at school.

Parents should:

- ✓ Ensure that their children arrive at school on time, appropriately dressed and ready to learn.
- ✓ Instil in their children an appreciation of the importance of attending school regularly.
- ✓ Ensure that they are aware of the attendance policy of their children's school.
- ✓ Impress upon their children the need to observe the school's code of conduct.
- ✓ Take an active interest in their children's school career, praising and encouraging good learning and behaviour and attending parents' evenings and other relevant meetings.
- ✓ Work in partnership with their children's school to resolve issues which may lead to non-attendance.
- ✓ Notify their children's school if they are absent. This should be done on the first day of absence by 9.00 am. Parents should also provide an explanation for the absence.
- ✓ Contact can be made via the school website (link below), via the Arbor app or via phone 01438 233660

- ✓ Inform school of any changes to contact details.
- ✓ Avoid arranging medical/dental appointments during school hours.
- ✓ Not book holidays during term time.
- ✓ Call on staff for help when they need it.
- ✓ Treat staff with respect and actively support work of school.
- ✓ Communicate as early as possible circumstances which may affect absence or require support.

The name and contact details of the school staff member pupils and parents should contact for more detailed support on attendance:

9. Local Authority Attendance Support Team

Local Authority Attendance Support Specialists work strategically by offering support to schools, to reduce persistent absence and improve overall attendance.

Parents/Carers are expected to work with the school and local authority to address any attendance concerns. Parent/Carers should proactively engage with the support offered, aiming to resolve any problems together. This is nearly always successful. If difficulties cannot be resolved in this way, the school may consider more formal support and/or refer the child to the Local Authority. If attendance does not improve, legal action may be taken which may be in the form of a Penalty Notice (see Annex B for the Hertfordshire Code of Conduct) or other legal options available to the Local Authority such as prosecution in the Magistrates Court.

10.School Attendance and the Law

New legislation has been passed. The School Attendance (Pupil Registration) (England) Regulations 2024 which introduced a National Framework in England. By law all children of compulsory school age must receive an appropriate full-time education (Education Act 1996). Parent/Carers have a legal duty to ensure their child attends school regularly at the school at which they are registered.

Parent/Carers may be recognised differently under education law, than under family law. Section 576 of the Education Act 1996 states that a 'parent', in relation to a child or young person, includes any person who is not a parent (from which can be inferred 'biological parent') but who has parental responsibility, or who has care of the child.

A person typically has care of a child or young person if they are the person with whom the child lives, either full or part time and who looks after the child, irrespective of what their biological or legal relationship is with the child.

11.National Framework for Penalty Notices

There is now a single consistent national threshold for when a penalty notice must be considered by all schools in England, of 10 sessions (usually equivalent to 5 school days) of unauthorised absence within a rolling 10 school week period. The 10 sessions of absence do not have to be consecutive and can be made up of a combination of any type of unauthorised absence (G, O and/or U coded within the school's registers). The 10-school week period can span different terms, school years or education settings.

Sanctions may include issuing each parent (for each child) with a Penalty Notice for £160, reduced to £80 if paid within 21 days (for the first offence). A second Penalty Notice issued within a three-year period will result in a fine of £160 per parent, per child. If a third offence is committed the matter may be referred to the local authority for consideration of prosecution via the Magistrates Court. If prosecution is instigated for irregular school attendance, each parent/carer may receive a fine of up to £2500 and/or up to 3 months in prison. If a parent/carer is found guilty in court, they will receive a criminal conviction.

See Annex B for the Hertfordshire Code of Conduct.

There is no entitlement in law for pupils to take time off during the term to go on holiday or other absence for the purpose of leisure or recreation, or to take part in protest activity in school hours. In addition, the Supreme Court has ruled that the definition of regular school attendance is “in accordance with the rules prescribed by the school.”

The School Attendance (Pupil Registration) (England) Regulations 2024 set out the statutory requirements for schools. All references to family holidays and extended leave have been removed. The amendments specify that headteachers may not grant any leave of absence during term time unless there are "exceptional circumstances" and they do not have any discretion to authorise up to ten days of absence each academic year.

It is a rule of this school that a leave of absence shall not be granted in term time unless there are reasons considered to be exceptional by the headteacher, irrespective of the child’s overall attendance. Only the headteacher or his/her designate (not the local authority) may authorise such a request and all applications for a leave of absence must be made in writing, in advance, on the prescribed form provided by the school. The school will usually consider that the parent who has made the application is therefore allowing the leave of absence, and that all parents who are on the holiday are allowing the leave. Where a parent removes a child after their application for leave was refused or where no application was made to the school, the absence will be recorded as unauthorised. It is likely that penalty notices will be requested, in line with the National Framework and Hertfordshire Code of Conduct, in respect of each parent believed to have allowed the absence.

At Almond Hill, 'exceptional circumstances' will be interpreted as:

The fundamental principles for defining ‘exceptional’ are events that are “rare, significant, unavoidable and short”. By 'unavoidable' we mean an event that could not reasonably be scheduled at another time, outside of school term time, regardless of who has planned or paid for the holiday or absence (including grandparents or other family or friends).

The headteacher/school may discuss the leave of absence request with other education settings and/or the Local Authority to determine any exceptional circumstances.

If leave of absence is authorised, the school will not provide work for children to do during their absence. Parent/Carers are however advised to read with their children and encourage them to write a diary while they are away.

12. Uncollected Children

The staff of Almond Hill Junior School are aware that sometimes parents are delayed when due to collect their children. Therefore, we operate an uncollected child policy.

- Parents are asked to phone the school as soon as possible if they are going to be late.
- If a child is not collected at the end of the school day, the children will be brought to the school office. Staff will contact the parent's contact numbers first (home, mobile, work) before trying emergency contact numbers. Parents must ensure that all contact numbers are up to date and that mobile phones are switched on. We require 2 emergency contacts for all children.
- When the parent/carer arrives to collect their child, they must come into the office and sign their child out.
- If a child is still uncollected the children's services duty desk will be contacted and children's services will then be asked to collect the child. (PLEASE NOTE THAT CHILDREN'S SERVICES ARE CONTACTED ONLY AS A LAST RESORT).
- In the event of Social Services' involvement, a message will be left on the main door informing parents where the child is, with a contact number.

13. Deletion from Roll

For any pupil leaving Almond Hill Junior School, other than at the end of year 6, parents/carers are required email the school office: admin@almondhill.herts.sch.uk Please provide school with the following information: Child's name, class, current address, date of leaving, new home address, name of new school, address of new school. This information is essential to ensure that we know the whereabouts and may appropriately safeguard all our pupils, even those who leave us.

It is crucial that parent/carers keep school updated with current addresses and contact details for the pupil and key family members, in case of emergency.

Under Pupil Regulations 2006, all schools are legally required to notify their Local Authority of every new entry to the admission register within five days of the pupil being enrolled. In addition to this, every deletion from the school register must also be notified to the Local Authority, as soon as the ground for deletion has been met in relation to that pupil, and in any event no later than the time at which the pupil's name is deleted from the register. This duty does not apply when a pupil's name is removed from the admission register at a standard transition point – when the pupil has completed the final year of education normally provided by that school.

14. Absence data

We use data to monitor, identify and support individual pupils or groups of pupils when their attendance needs to improve, and schools are required to submit pupil attendance data to the Department for Education on a daily basis Education (Information about Individual Pupils) (England) (Amendment) Regulations 2024. Persistently and severely absent pupils are tracked and monitored carefully. We also combine this with academic tracking, as increased absence affects attainment.

We share information and work collaboratively with other schools in the area, local authorities, and other partners, when absence is at risk of becoming persistent or severe.

Dear Recipient(s) Salutation ,

Our records show that since the beginning of this academic year Student(s) First Name 's attendance has been Report Field: Statutory/Roll Call Attendance (Present) this academic year . This level of attendance is below the school's minimum target attendance of 96% and, to put this into perspective, 90% attendance is equivalent to missing half a school year in the five years of compulsory secondary education.

It is a parent's legal responsibility to ensure their child is in school. Ongoing unauthorised absence of 10 sessions or more could lead to a Penalty Notice being issued, which is a fine of £80 if paid within the first 21 days and £160 if paid within 28 days. If the fine is not paid within 28 days, parents could be prosecuted for their child's poor attendance. For your information government attendance policy states that one school day is equal to two sessions (morning and afternoon).

We wish to work closely with you to improve Student(s) First Name 's attendance. Please contact us if you would like to meet Mrs Burgess (Pastoral Lead) to help support you to achieve this.

Thank you for your support.

Appendix 2 – Attendance Letter 2

Dear Recipient(s) Salutation ,

Student(s) First Name 's attendance overall for this academic year is Report Field: Statutory/Roll Call Attendance (Present) this academic year which is below the school's minimum target of 96%. We understand that some absence due to illness may be unavoidable. However, it is important the school are aware of any on-going health problems so we can put the correct support in place.

To put your child's absence into perspective, 90% attendance is equivalent to missing half a school year in the five years of compulsory secondary school education. We are sure that you are aware that every school day counts and missing any time from school results in lost learning. We want to support Student(s) First Name and make certain that he/she/they does not get behind with work or miss out on any opportunities school offers.

Due to the large amount of absence Student(s) First Name has had, I must inform you that we will now require a doctor's note or appointment card in order to authorise any future periods of absence. A photograph of medication prescribed can also be provided as evidence.

It is a parent's legal responsibility to ensure their child is in school. Ongoing unauthorised absence of 10 sessions or more could lead to a Penalty Notice being issued, which is a fine of £80 if paid within the first 21 days and £160 if paid within 28 days. If the fine is not paid within 28 days, parents could be prosecuted for their child's poor attendance. We wish to work closely with you to improve Student(s) First Name 's attendance. Please contact us if you would like to meet Mrs Burgess (Pastoral Lead) or Mrs Fordham (Headteacher) to help support you to achieve this.

Thank you for your co-operation and support.

Yours sincerely,

Attendance Percentage –Letter 3

Dear «salutation»

With reference to previous correspondence, I have noticed that «forename»'s attendance is now at «percentage_attendance»% since the beginning of this academic year. This has improved since I last contacted you. However, it is still below the school's minimum target attendance of 96% and, to reiterate, a child who is absent a day of school per week misses an equivalent of two years of their school life.

We would appreciate your support to make sure «forename»'s attendance continues to improve.

The school will continue to monitor the situation and will be in touch again if it does not improve. In the meantime, if you would like to discuss any concerns then myself or Mrs Burgess will be happy to meet with you to offer appropriate support as we want your children to achieve the best possible outcomes.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Yours sincerely

Appendix 4 - Attendance letter 4

Dear Recipient(s) Salutation ,

With reference to Student(s) First Name 's attendance last year which was Report Field: Statutory/Roll Call Attendance (Present) this academic year . This is below the government expectation of 96% and therefore I am writing to inform you that school will be monitoring attendance closely and will need medical evidence in order to authorise any absences this term. This can be a doctor's note, appointment card or a photograph of medication prescribed.

It is a parent's legal responsibility to ensure their child is in school. Ongoing unauthorised absence of 10 sessions or more could lead to a Penalty Notice being issued, which is a fine of £80 if paid within the first 21 days and £160 if paid within 28 days. If the fine is not paid within 28 days, parents could be prosecuted for their child's poor attendance. Thank you for your support.

Appendix 5 – Attendance letter to send to parents in September

Dear Families,

Whilst it is understood that the new government attendance rulings, adopted by all Local Authorities with regards to term time holidays, is unpopular, the school have to adhere to these procedures as per the school attendance policy (to be found on our website).

The procedures state that if 10 sessions (5 days or more) are taken for a term time holiday, this will result in a Fixed Penalty Notice, a fine of £80 per parent, per child.

In order to make this fair, consistent and transparent across the whole school community, any reason for extended periods of absence (5 days or more) will require evidence to prove illness or that the circumstances for the absence are exceptional.

Exceptional circumstances being those occasions that are ‘rare, significant, unavoidable or short.’

If no evidence is provided, the period of absence will be recorded as term time holiday and the Fixed Penalty Notice process will apply.

It is accepted that on occasions, evidence is hard to produce. On these occasions, please contact me to discuss the circumstances of the absence.
